

GNIFF Program London - TheatreDeli

Inaugural Curated Edition 2023

Venue: Theatre Deli, 107 Leadenhall Street, EC3A 4AF

FRIDAY 9th June 6:30<sup>PM</sup> (arrive 6pm)

BE INSPIRED & UNLEASH YOUR CREATIVITY

Title: iCare
Director: Bruno Urzi
Country: United Kingdom
Length: 1m 54s
Short Synopsis: A care robot looks after an elderly woman.
Award: Best Animation Short (Winter 2023)

Title: RIFT
Director: Farhad Bakhtiarikish
Country: Sweden
Length: 14m 15s
Short Synopsis: An unhappy married man who still believes in true love finds himself in a dilemma when meets a woman in a virtual dating app called RIFT.
Award: Best Fantasy/Sci-Fi Short (Winter 2023)

Title: PAK LIFE
Director: Mike Doxford
Country: United Kingdom
Length: 3m
Short Synopsis: A seemingly innocent chat up turns into some stereotyped ideas about race and identity.
Award: Best Comedy Short (Winter 2023)

Title: Monkey or Man
Director: Oscar Hewitt
Country: United Kingdom
Length: 5m 02s
Short Synopsis: When a circus trio have a particularly disastrous show, Mandy the Acrobat must decide whether to run away from the circus, or to stay and help her friends.
Award: Best Comedy Short (Autumn 2022)

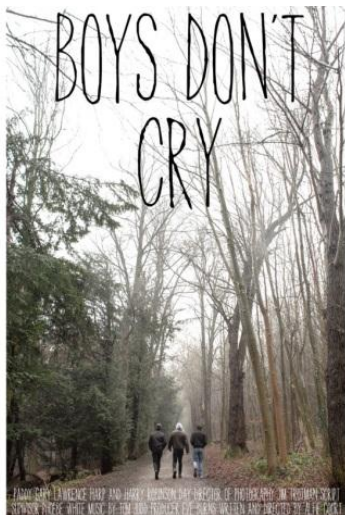

Title: JONI
Director: Tara Kitson
Country: United Kingdom
Length: 6m 33s
Short Synopsis: A group of friends are excited to open their new JONI, a playful android with no social skills. When the party hits her, she starts to act even stranger.
Award: Best Mobile Short (Summer 2022)

Title: The Relented
 Director: Steve James Moore
 Country: United Kingdom
 Length: 11m 24s

Short Synopsis: After two decades of political and economic turmoil, society has broken down. We follow Mitchell, a young man and newly declared Dissent, surviving alone as hunter gatherer in the wild for the past 18 months. As Mitchell makes his way through dangerous territories, on a slow route to the Freeland when he finds himself in an interaction he thought not possible.

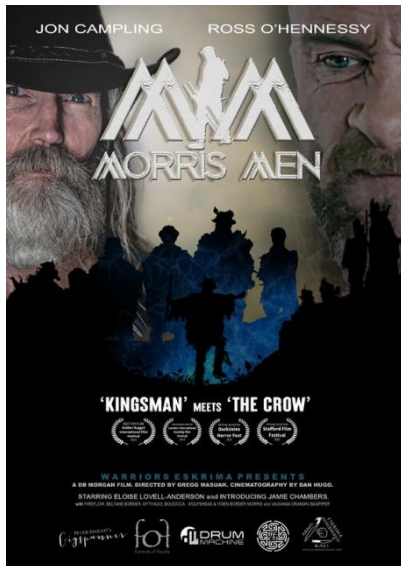

Award: Best Drama Short (Winter 2023)

Title: Boys Don't Cry
 Director: Alfie Court
 Country: United Kingdom
 Length: 22m 59s

Short Synopsis: Three young lads venture into the woods and don't come out the same. Aaron, the ringleader, believes he has found something out there, something that belonged to his girlfriend who's been missing for a year. His two friends think he's become obsessed chasing her ghost, but they are reluctantly dragged along all the same despite losing hope she'll ever be found.

Award: Best Long Short (Autumn 2022)

Title: Morris Men
 Director: Gregg Masuak
 Country: United Kingdom
 Length: 1hr 32m
 Short: When a seaside town is gripped in a vice of Synopsis: drug fueled corruption, sometimes the only solution is to book a dance with the Morris
 Men.
 Award: Best Feature (Autumn 2022)

GNIFF "Find new talented filmmakers (golden nuggets) – Establish a nurturing network – EXIST as Creative Entrepreneurs"

Join us today to begin your Story Telling Journey

(Reach out to Taraq or Jenny at the event today to learn more)

A huge thanks to all our Filmmakers, Sponsors and Judges, without whom this event would not be possible.

PATRON

Quote -"It's wonderful to part of such a festival which is by filmmakers for filmmakers". Jon-Paul Gates is an versatile actor who has starred/appeared in 107+ international feature films, and additionally produced 10 features predominantly playing the antagonist. Born in Greenford, Middlesex. He spent most of his childhood in a village near Doncaster, South Yorkshire, to date he has starred in 12 movies in the USA.

www.gniff.com

info@gniff.com